

RELAXATION FOR RADIANT HEALTH

Creating a gentle space for you to connect with your body & de-stress effortlessly

This Guided Relaxation will help you to:

- Gently reduce stress and anxiety
- Increase your feelings of wellbeing
- Boost your confidence in your body's ability to relax deeply
- Help you feel calmer and more in control

Did you know that if you induce endorphins (the body's own natural relaxant) into your body you are actively eliminating stress hormone? Endorphins and stress hormone have a mutually exclusive relationship; you either have one or the other.

Relaxation is a safe, gentle and highly effective way of actively inducing endorphins and is proven to reduce stress and anxiety, enhance your immune function and significantly increase your feelings of wellbeing. Relaxation can also help you tune into your body and develop a deep sense of connection and trust in yourself. Every time you go into relaxation you positively impact your hormones and help your body to relax more and more deeply.
